

Internet

At a Glance

Integrated Internet Solutions

Our knowledgeable team is able to handle all issues pertaining to litigation, regulations, intellectual property, antitrust, transactions, and more.

Technology Pioneers

With 1,000+ years of combined technology and internet experience, our team is accomplished in all legal issues for every industry touching the expansive scope of the internet.

Overview

Munck Wilson Mandala's proficiency in technology law enables us to offer clients integrated solutions that provide a strong foundation for success. Legal innovators for everything pertaining to the internet-of-things, our practiced legal team serves as leading advisors for a wide spectrum of clients.

The tremendous growth of the internet coupled with smart technology has this evolutionary industry touching everything from financial services, communications, entertainment, and more. Munck Wilson Mandala's sophisticated technology attorneys and full-service staff is equipped to handle everything clients need in this evolving space.

With experience representing various clientele across the globe, we are well-versed in providing smart and strategic legal solutions pertaining to regulatory issues, litigation, intellectual property, antitrust, and transactions. Teams are proficient in Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and other evolving internet regulations, helping to serve as partners for internet clients.

Offering proficiency in everything pertaining to the internet-of-things, our multidimensional teams are experienced with cloud storage, gaming, search engine optimization, streaming, cybersecurity, marketing, e-commerce, and more.