

Large Loss Property Subrogation

At a Glance

Substantial Experience

Each of our senior attorneys bring more than 25 years of experience in the large loss property subrogation field, and all team members have a proven track record of successful recoveries.

Senior Advisor Leads Your Team

Our approach ensures a senior partner oversees your case and leads the legal team through the complex litigation process, helping to build the most effective strategies.

Overview

At Munck Wilson Mandala, your case will be handled by a senior attorney with a proven track record in the field of insurance and large loss property subrogation. They lead a team of professionals well known for bringing successful results no matter how complicated the circumstances. Actively representing major insurance carriers, Munck Wilson Mandala attorneys have represented clients across the U.S. in matters involving structural collapses, fire losses, water damage, and other catastrophes.

At Munck Wilson Mandala, we believe that every loss deserves the most experienced attorney on your case. That is why we assign the best qualified and experienced attorney, with more than 25 years of experience, to lead your team of legal advisors and monitor the case from start to finish. We take pride in our proven track record of successful recoveries under the most challenging circumstances.

Munck Wilson Mandala lawyers have represented clients across the U.S. in matters involving structural defects resulting in damage or collapse, fire losses, water losses, and other disasters.

We have substantial experience in matters and issues regularly encountered in subrogation, such as:

- Alarm/Security Cases
- Building/Roof/Crane Failure/Collapse
- Catastrophe Losses/Hurricanes/Wildfires
- Construction Defects
- Electrical/Mechanical/Plumbing Failures
- Sprinkler System/Fire Protection System Failures
- Fires and Explosions

Large Loss Property Subrogation

- CSST Cases
- Fire Spread Cases
- Geotechnical Failures
- Flood Losses
- Spontaneous Combustion
- Human Factors/Warnings Cases
- Industrial Accidents
- Industrial Equipment Failures
- Mold Litigation
- Product Liability Matters

We accept large loss subrogation assignments ranging from $100,000 to multi-million dollar losses. We approach your case with early investigation, resourceful evaluation, and diligent prosecution. We practice throughout the country and have developed an extensive network of experts and local counsel anywhere you need us.

Our large loss attorneys are groomed and thrive in a contingency fee environment that awards results—not the amount of hours billed. Our contingency fee approach aligns us with your goal of maximizing recovery in the most efficient manner. Your case will be staffed with our most qualified senior attorney leading the project and other highly skilled associates and support staff whose work is concentrated in this specific area.

We believe our track record and unique experience in large loss property subrogation will make a difference in helping you achieve maximum recovery for your property loss.

New Loss Report Form